Refund Policy

Partial Withdrawal

Students who do not completely withdraw from the college but drop a class during the regular drop/add period will be refunded the difference in the tuition paid and the tuition rate applicable to the reduced number of hours, including fees appropriate to the classes dropped. There is no refund due to a student who partially withdraws after the official drop/add period. The last day to drop/add is published as part of the College calendar and conforms to the guidelines issued from the Alabama Community College Office.

Complete Withdrawal

Students who officially or unofficially withdraw from all classes for which they are registered before the first day of class for the semester/term will be refunded the total amount of tuition and other refundable fees. The “first day of class” is the first day classes are offered within any term configuration, including, but not limited to, full terms, split terms, mini-terms and weekend terms. Students who officially or unofficially withdraw completely on or after the first day of class, but prior to the end of the third week of class will be refunded according to the withdrawal date, as follows:

Complete Withdrawal before the official first day of class	100% refund
Complete Withdrawal during first week	75% refund
Complete Withdrawal during second week	50% refund
Complete Withdrawal during third week	25% refund
Complete Withdrawal after the end of the third week	NO REFUND

An administrative fee not to exceed 5% of tuition and other refundable institutional charges shall be assessed for each withdrawal within the period beginning the first day of class and ending at the end of the third week of class. The first official day of class is indicated on the College calendar as the day that classes begin. There is only one first day of class. This day may not be the first day on which all classes begin. The calendar also indicates the last day to drop/add. For calculating refunds during the fall and spring sixteen-week terms, a “week” is defined as seven calendar days, i.e. the first day of class running seven calendar days (inclusive of Saturday and Sunday). Refunds of shorter than sixteen weeks, such as summer terms, mini-terms, split terms and weekend terms, will reflect a prorated week based on the number of days in the term.

Example: Classes begin June 14, student withdraws June 17.
Fourth day = 75% Refund due.

Refund for Alabama National Guard and Reservists Called to Active Duty

Students who are active members of the Alabama National Guard or reservists or who are active duty military who are called to active duty by executive order of the President of the United States or a State Governor in the time of national crisis may receive a refund of tuition and other appropriate institutional charges at the time of withdrawal. Returned Checks

Two-year colleges have been authorized by the Alabama Community College System Board of Trustees to charge for each check that is issued to the institution and is returned for insufficient funds or other reasons. A fee will be charged for any check written to the College, which is returned. The current amount of the returned check fee allowed by state law is $30.00, which is the maximum allowed by state law. The College utilizes a third-party to collect and process returned checks.

Students with returned checks will be placed on processing hold until all charges have been paid and will remain on a "cash-only" basis thereafter.

Failure to Receive Financial Aid Disbursement Check

All students are required to maintain current mailing address information through the Office of Admissions and Records. If a student fails to receive a financial aid disbursement check which has been mailed, a 21-day waiting period will be in effect from the date the check was mailed before the replacement process will be initiated.
